The Victims of Crime Act's (VOCA)

Crime Victims Fund

- The Crime Victims Fund provides critical funding that helps millions of victims of all types of crime every year.
- The Fund comes from the collection of Federal criminal fines; not taxpayer revenues.
- Congress has repeatedly said that all amounts deposited into the Fund would remain available for victim services.
- Rescinding $1.267 billion means there will be no funds available to support victim services at the start of FY 2007.

Programs supported by the Crime Victims Fund:

- Children's Justice Act
- U.S. Attorney's victim/witness coordinators
- F.B.I. victim assistance specialists
- Federal victim notification system
- OVC discretionary grants
- State compensation formula grants
- State victim assistance formula grants
- Antiterrorism Emergency Reserve

- All deposits into CVF come from Federal criminal fines, forfeitures and special assessments not taxpayer revenues.

- Collections began fluctuating significantly beginning in FY 1996.
- Congress has imposed limit on annual obligations since the FY 2000 to ensure stable funding in future years.
- In three of six years, the amounts retained in the Fund have been needed to make up the difference between the previous year's deposits and the cap.

Congress has repeatedly reaffirmed that all deposits would be retained in the Fund for future victim services:

"The conferees have taken this action [delaying annual Fund obligations] to protect against wide fluctuations in receipts into the Fund, and to ensure that a stable level of funding will remain available for these programs in future years."

[FY 2000; Conf. Rpt. 106-479]

"Sums deposited in the Fund shall remain in the Fund and be available for expenditure under this chapter for grants under this chapter without fiscal year limitation. Notwithstanding section 1402(d)(5), all sums deposited in the Fund in any fiscal year that are not made available for obligation by Congress in the subsequent fiscal year shall remain in the Fund for obligation in future fiscal years, without fiscal year limitation."

[42 U.S.C. 10601(c); amended Pub. L. 106-386; Oct. 28, 2000]

"The conferees have taken this action to protect against wide fluctuations in receipts into the Fund, and to ensure that a stable level of funding will remain available for these programs in future years.

[FY 2002;Conf. Rpt 107-278]

"[The cap] is continued to ensure a stable source of funds will remain available for the program, despite inconsistent levels of criminal fines deposited annually into the fund."

Rescission of $1.267 billion from Crime Victims Fund:

- Removes all amounts Congress kept in Fund for future victim services (after $650 million FY06 allocations).
- Removes all amounts deposited during FY 06.
- Leaves zero funds at start of FY 2007 for crime victim services.

The Crime Victims Fund is used to support State crime victim compensation, State victim assistance programs and services to victims of Federal crimes.

With no money in the Crime Victims Fund at the beginning of FY 2007, funds will not be available for these essential, often life-saving, services for crime victims.

Save the Crime Victims Fund

Reject the rescission of $1.267 billion and retain all amounts in the Fund to ensure stable funding for critical victim services in the future.

HOW THE CRIME VICTIMS FUND IS DISBURSED

Funds deposited into the Crime Victims Fund are allocated according to the following statutory formula (42 U.S.C. 10601(d)):

- The first $10 million to $20 million is used for formula grants to states to improve the investigation and prosecution of child abuse (Children's Justice Act);
- Following that, "such sums as may be necessary" are set aside for certain Federal victim services:
  - Victim witness coordinators in U.S. Attorneys' offices;
  - Victim assistance staff in FBI offices;
  - Federal Victim Notification System (VNS).
- Of the amount remaining, after the above allocations:
  - 5% for discretionary grants administered by the Office for Victims of Crime for demonstration projects, training and technical assistance and services to victims of federal crimes.
  - 47.5% in formula grants for state crime victim compensation benefits (each state grant based upon 60% of its state-funded benefit).
  - 47.5% in formula grants to states to support direct services to victims of crime plus any amount not used for state crime victim compensation grants (each state receives a base amount plus an amount apportioned on population).
- In addition, up to 5 percent of amounts remaining in the Fund, after the above annual allocations, may be used to replenish the Antiterrorism Emergency Reserve (AER) which is available for assistance to victims of international and domestic terrorism or mass violence and compensation to international terrorism victims.

Unless the total Fund allocation is determined at the beginning of each fiscal year, the Justice Department will be unable to calculate the grant amounts to be awarded.

Victim Assistance Programs

- Formula grants to all States and territories are based largely on population.
- 4,400 public and nonprofit agencies . . .
